

MIDWEEK

Midweek provides an opportunity to take a break from your usual weeknight routine and to join our church family for a refreshing evening of fellowship and learning. There are Bible studies for adults and activities for students, children, and preschool. Join us beginning Wednesday, January 17.

CLASSES FOR ADULTS

1 & 2 KINGS 6:30 pm | Room 322

Engage in a dynamic men's Bible study, exploring the narratives of 1 & 2 Kings. Uncover the wisdom, challenges, and leadership lessons from the lives of ancient kings. Delve into the triumphs and failures, drawing relevant insights for today's modern men. Join a fellowship that seeks to apply biblical principles to contemporary life, fostering spiritual growth and friendships.

This class is taught by Jake Petty.

DEVELOPING OUR THEOLOGY: THE HOLY SPIRIT

6:30 pm | Room 316

Join us in unraveling the theological intricacies of the Holy Spirit. Delve into scriptural foundations, exploring the Spirit's role, gifts, and empowerment. Gain insights to strengthen your faith journey and cultivate a robust theological understanding. This study invites you to discover the transformative presence of the Holy Spirit in alignment with Christian perspectives, providing both depth and encouragement in your spiritual exploration.

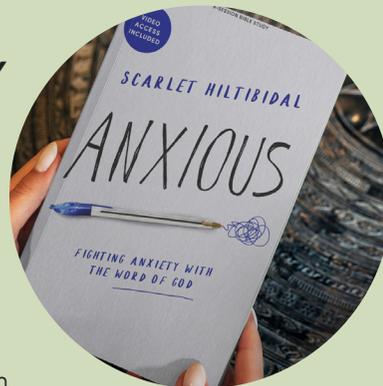

This class is taught by Jesse Silva.

ANXIOUS - WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Women's Bible Study | Wednesdays & Thursdays

In our broken world, plagued by natural disasters and unrest, finding peace is vital. This study by Scarlet Hiltibidal explores how God's Word offers solace. Acknowledging our inability to fix or protect ourselves, it guides us to rest in Jesus, who rescues and loves us. Join this 8-session journey into the Bible, prayer, and community, discovering practical ways to embrace perfect peace available through faith.

This class meets on Wednesday mornings, starting January 17, at 9:30 am in the Connect Room and is taught by Judy Schmidt. It is also offered on Thursday evenings at 7 pm in Room 302 and is taught by Marji Clubine.

PLACE CLASS

6:30 pm | Room 314

Do you struggle with feeling confused about where God has called you to serve? About discerning society's voices of what you "should" be doing versus God's voice? Do you struggle in searching for what God wants you to do? If so, discover God's plan for you in life and ministry through PLACE. During this course we will cover the following topics: P - Personality blends; L - Learning spiritual gifts; A - Abilities awareness; C - Connecting passion; E - Experiences of life. This class is taught by Scott Ward.

A STUDY IN 1 CORINTHIANS

6:30 pm | Room 302

Embark on a verse-by-verse study of 1 Corinthians, unraveling Paul's profound teachings. This study delves into issues of church unity, spiritual gifts, and Christian conduct. Each verse becomes a gateway to understanding Paul's wisdom, addressing the Corinthian community's challenges. Join this in-depth journey to glean practical insights, fostering personal and communal growth. Engage in discussions that illuminate the relevance of Paul's words, encouraging spiritual depth and practical application in modern life.

This class is taught by Dr. Kenneth Barker.

THE POWER OF A WOMAN'S WORDS

Women's Bible Study | 6:30 pm | Room 324

Your words hold incredible power, shaping lives and reflecting the mirrors in which others see themselves. In The Power of a Woman's Words by Sharon Jaynes, discover how to replace hurtful words with intentional ones that uplift, build confidence, and draw others in. This study teaches practical principles to tame your tongue, harnessing the Holy Spirit's power. The book and study guide are essential tools, available for purchase on Amazon or Christian Book. Join this transformative class and use your words to positively impact lives.

This study is led by Shelby Kindrick and Ashley Fowler.
